

JULY - IULAI 2018

MELE 'OHANA KANIKAPILA

Aloha kakou,

Happy late 4th of July. Now that you're well under way with your summer plans, it's time once again to think about another fun evening of ukulele playing, singing, dancing, talking with friends and enjoying some great food. I hope you remembered to mark your calendar for our upcoming kanikapila. As usual it will be a lot of fun and I hope to see you all there.

Don't forget our door prize table. Please bring an item to share. A summer treat would be nice. Mahalo!

All levels of ukulele players, singers and hula are welcome! Bring a friend and help spread the aloha.

We start the first hour with a potluck and social followed by a few announcements. Then it's time to jam!

Songs are played from the He Mele Aloha: A Hawaiian Songbook. If you have a song that's not in the book, please bring 30 copies to share. Or maybe teach a new strum, rhythm or chord position. It's always fun to learn something new.

Feel free to forward this announcement. We love to share the aloha spirit. Kanikapila is on the second Friday of every month except in the month of December.

If you or someone you know might have an interest in joining IMO, the performing branch of Mele 'Ohana, to help share the Hawaiian culture and have some fun, please contact me for more information at: bev.hottenstein@juno.com
