MELE ʻOHANA KANIKAPILA

Aloha kakou,

AAAAHHHH Happy New Year! How about this weather? I hope you are all enjoying this little bit of snow. It is beautiful – as long as you’re looking at it from the inside. I’m hoping that all of you had a wonderful holiday season that included lots of good parties, family, friends, food and of course good music.

I’m looking forward to our first Kanikapila of 2017. I’m hoping that you will all be able to be there and we can play some warm music, enjoy fine food and talk story about our holiday activities. Remember to bring a friend.

Remember our door prize drawing. If you have an item that would make a good door prize please bring it with you and we will have a lot of fun with them**

Mahalo nui loa,

And if you or anyone else you might know would have an interest in joining IMO to help spread some Hawaiian culture and have some fun please contact me for more info. We would really enjoy having some new faces in our group.

Kanikapila is on the second Friday of every month except in the month of December (no kanikapila).

All levels of ukulele players, singers and hula are welcome! Please bring a friend and spread the Aloha! We even encourage you to come even if you would just like to watch. Everyone is welcome!

We start out the first hour with a potluck dinner and social followed by a few announcements. Then it's time to jam!

Songs are played from the He Mele Aloha: A Hawaiian Songbook. The songbook is available locally at Pacific Winds. If you have a new song you would like to teach, please bring 30 copies to share. Or maybe teach a new strum, rhythm or position to play chords. It's always fun to learn something new.

Maybe this would be a great time to share a new song.

Also please feel free to forward on this reminder. We would love to share our Aloha Spirit.

In reference to your music if you have a Mele Ohana book that you're not using and would like to sell it please let me know or bring it to the Kanikapila as there are always people looking to buy a book.*
