

MARCH – MALAKI 2018

KANIKAPILA

Aloha kakou,

Aaahhhhh, spring is in the air and so is kanikapila. It's time again for another fine evening playing music, dancing, talking story and of course, enjoying great food. Come have some fun!

This month there are two holidays, St. Patrick's Day and Easter. If you have music for these holidays that you would like to share, please feel free to bring it.

*Let's make the theme of our door prize table
St. Patrick's Day or Easter.*

All levels of ukulele players, singers and hula are welcome! Bring a friend and help spread the aloha.

We start the first hour with a potluck and social followed by a few announcements. Then it's time to jam!

Songs are played from the He Mele Aloha: A Hawaiian Songbook. If you have a song that's not in the book, please bring 30 copies to share. Or maybe teach a new strum, rhythm or chord position. It's always fun to learn something new.

Feel free to forward this announcement. We love to share the aloha spirit. Kanikapila is on the second Friday of every month except in the month of December.

If you or someone you know might have an interest in joining IMO to help share the Hawaiian culture and have some fun, please contact me for more information at: bev.hottenstein@juno.com
